Consciousness Exploration--It's Not Rocket Science: Jim Lewis's Story

By Leslie France

Like Robert A. Monroe, Jim Lewis comes to consciousness exploration by way of science and technology, flying, and a deep and abiding interest in pretty much everything. In fact, while Bob was carefully documenting his early out-of-body experiences and searching desperately for an explanation, Jim was a pioneer with NASA's US space program.

Into White (again)

By Joseph Felser, PhD

I first came across Robert A. Monroe's Far Journeys back in the early 1990s, about ten years after I'd read Journeys Out of the Body, and it wound up changing my life.

It was one of the most perplexing books I'd ever read. Here I was, almost finished with my doctoral thesis in philosophy, and about to get my PhD, and I couldn't make sense of many chapters in the book. It bruised my ego!
